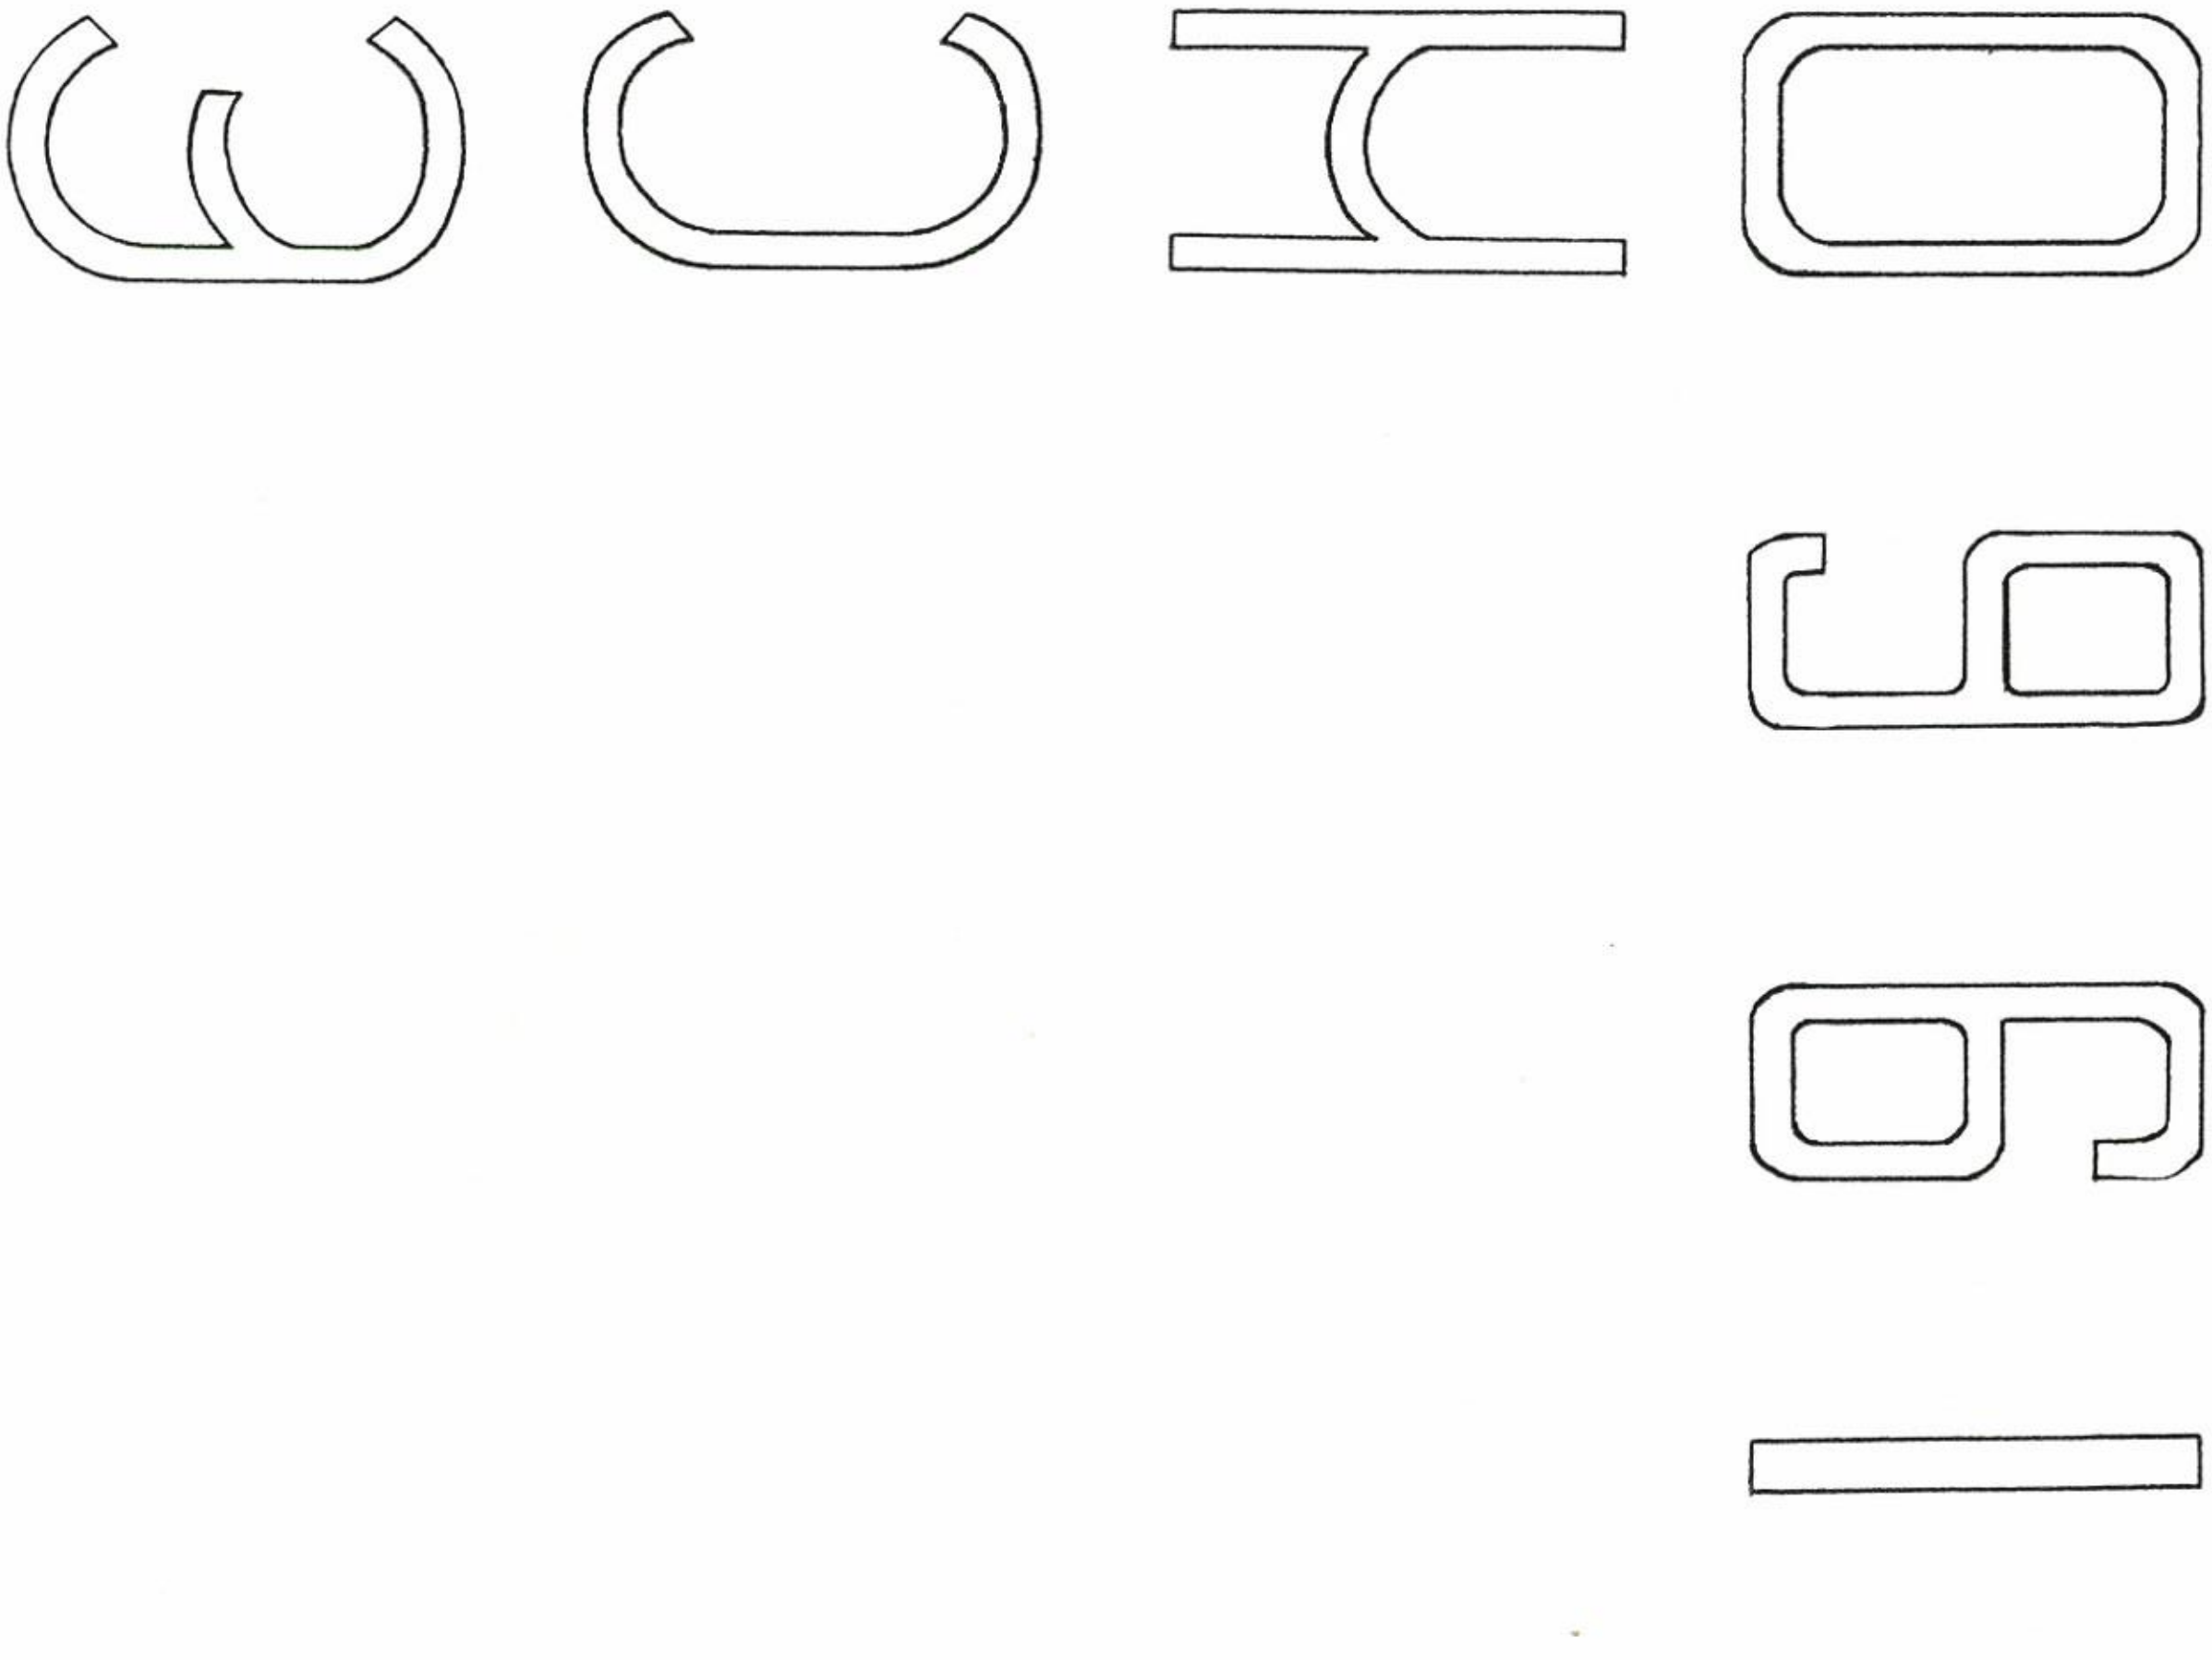
Lancaster, Pennsylvania



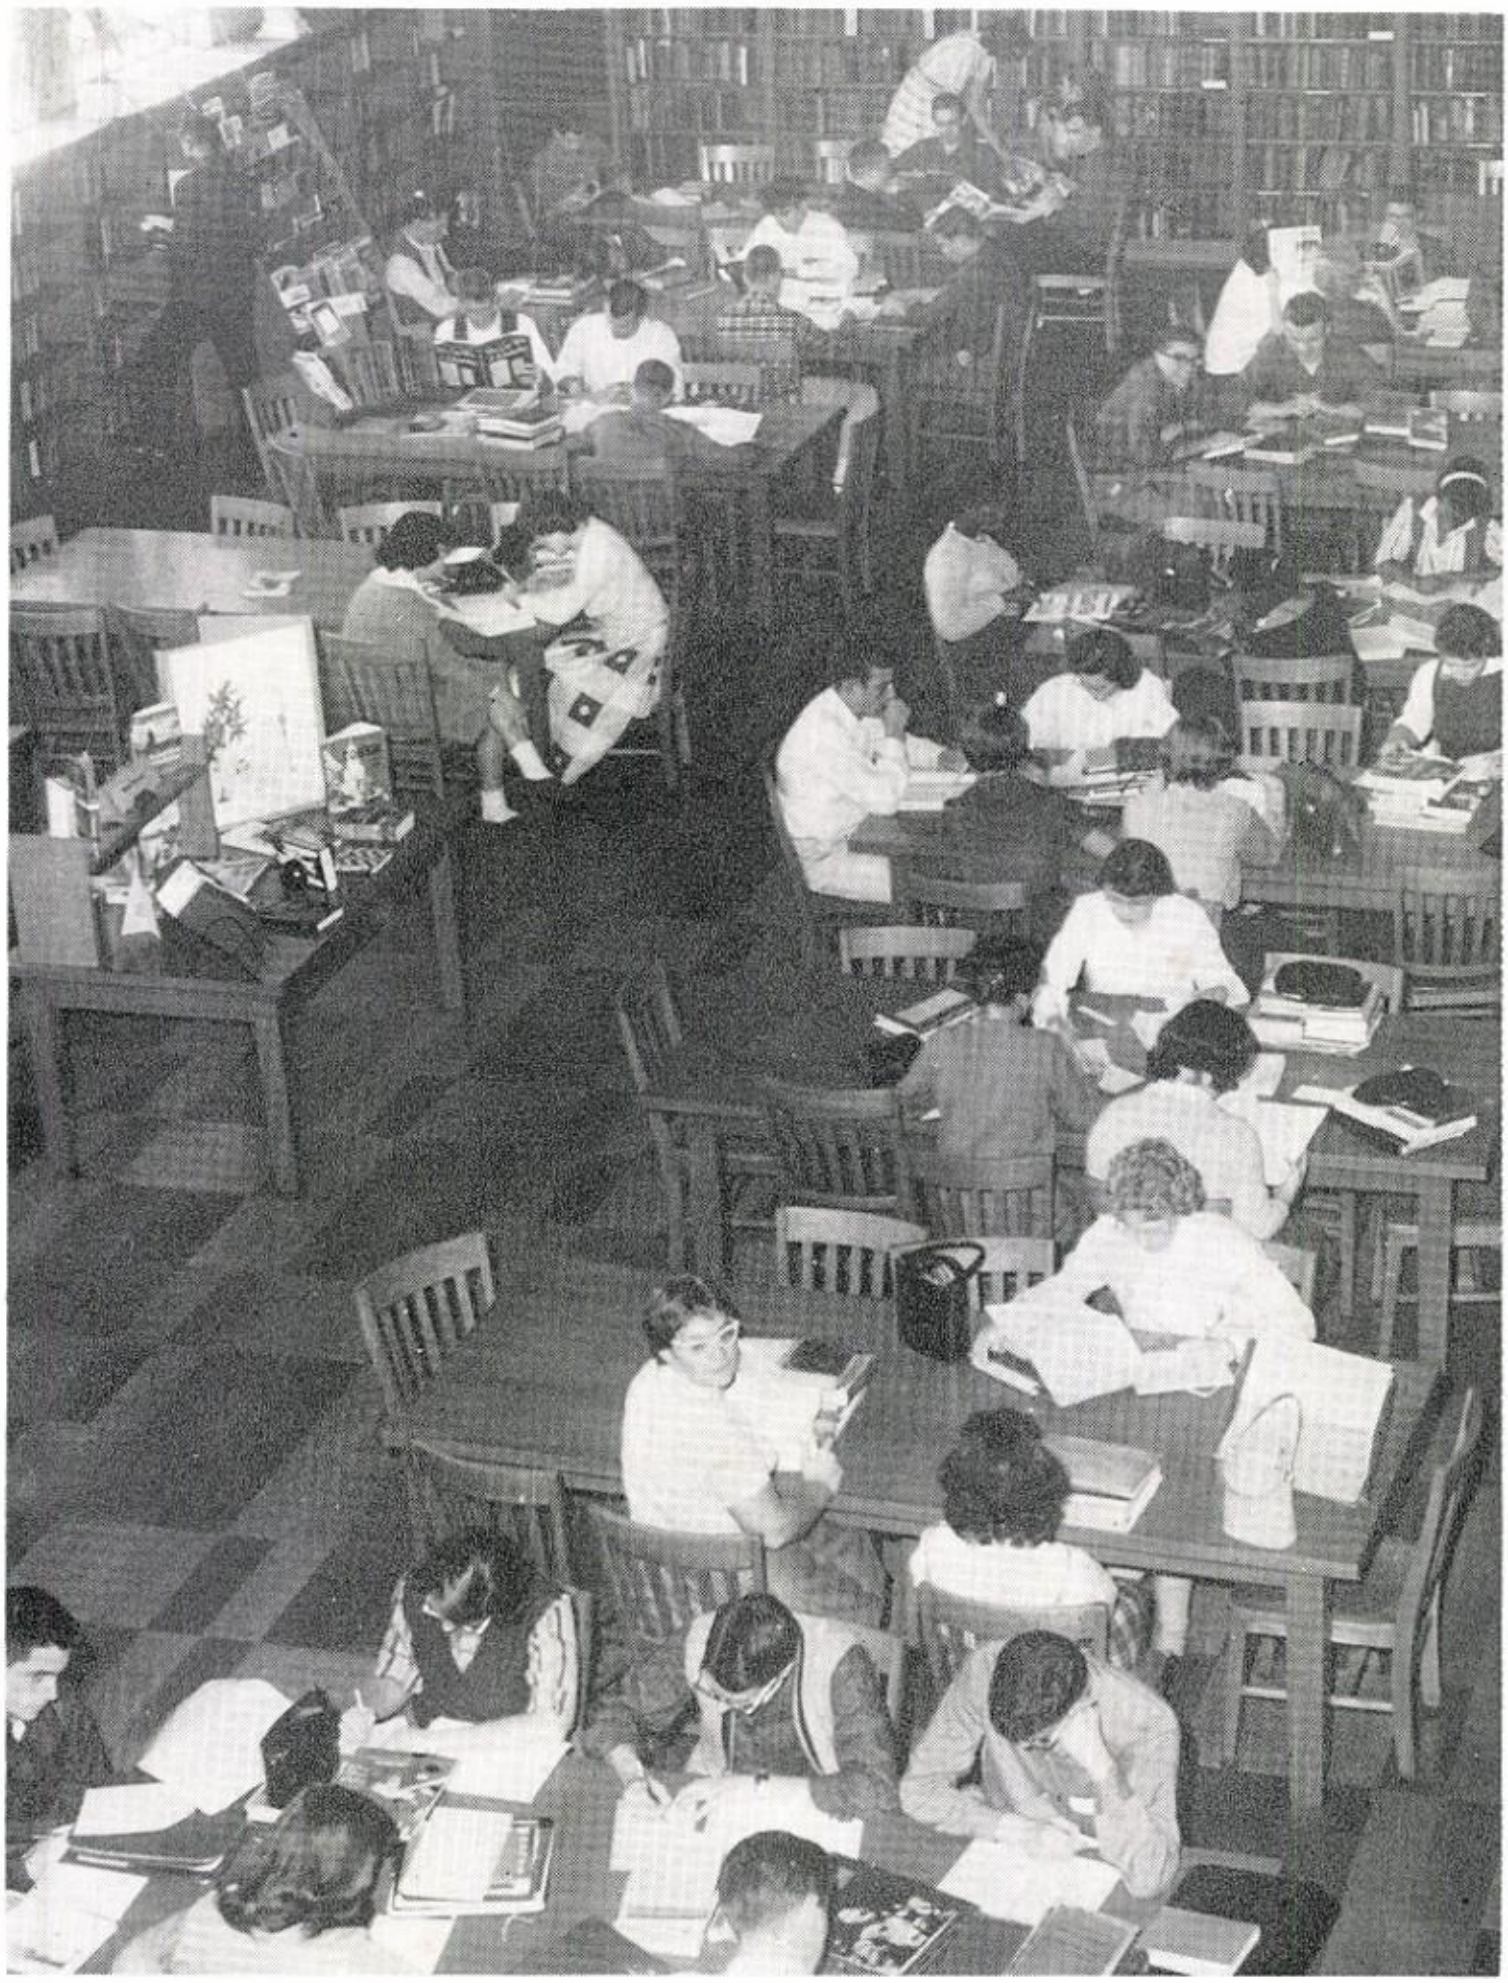
Alma Mater

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
As we sing our grateful song,
Proud are we for thee and prouder
That to Lancaster we belong.
School days filled with joy and laughter
Soon will be a memory.
May they teach us to be braver
As we face our destiny.

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Help us now to prove our worth,
As we strive to do thee honor,
Garden spot of all the earth.
Through the years our foes discerning,
Red and black—our flag we'll fly
O'er the best in sport and learning.
Hail to thee, McCaskey High.

McCaskey Campus Brightens Education In Democracy

Inez Schuberth poses beside an addition to the beauty of the McCaskey campus—a tree planted by the Memorial Shade Tree Commission on Arbor Day, 1959.



A School Novel

Sylvia Mohn, Ronald Hinkle, Eugene Lefever, and Jane Thieme take advantage of the beautiful October weather as they meet at one of the scenic spots on the campus. In the background a group of underclassmen look on.

School Scenes Reveal An Interesting Look

A rugged snowstorm in December caused an early dismissal, resulting in shrieks of joy and a long line of students trudging across Victory Field to reach the McCaskey bus stop. This half-day vacation was forerunner of a two-day "relaxation period" in March when a thirteen-inch blizzard closed the schools.

A School Novel Records "A Time To Remember"

Just as John Gunther tells of the United States in his book Inside U. S. A., the 1960 yearbook relates the inside story of life at McCaskey. The titles of books are used as a basis in telling this tale of life in a self-contained little world of like and unlike activities. By their presence at McCaskey, the students are the main characters in a book that took a year to complete.

In most stories one character is usually outstanding. In this book Prof. Bert A. Bookworm comes to life as a master of ceremonies. Altho a bookworm is a symbol for a diligent reader, this little fellow seems to be more of an extrovert as he appears in his various disguises. He demonstrates his skill in music and sports; he proves his dramatic ability when he portrays teacher, senior with a mortar board, pert underclassman, and salesman.

The school plays, glee-club presentations, assemblies, dances, class work, undefeated football season, two-day testing program called Project Talent—all will make this year one students are not likely to forget.

It's all over! Toletha Todd, Louise Jennings, and Ann Neidermyer discuss Project Talent.

George Harlem, editor, and Mr. Robert W. Broome, VIDETTE adviser, discuss the latest issue of the school newspaper. Mr. Broome received one of several local Pilot Club teacher-awards for 1959. Chosen by an anonymous committee of responsible citizens, the candidates are selected for outstanding service in the field of education, understanding of youth, and pride in civic duties.

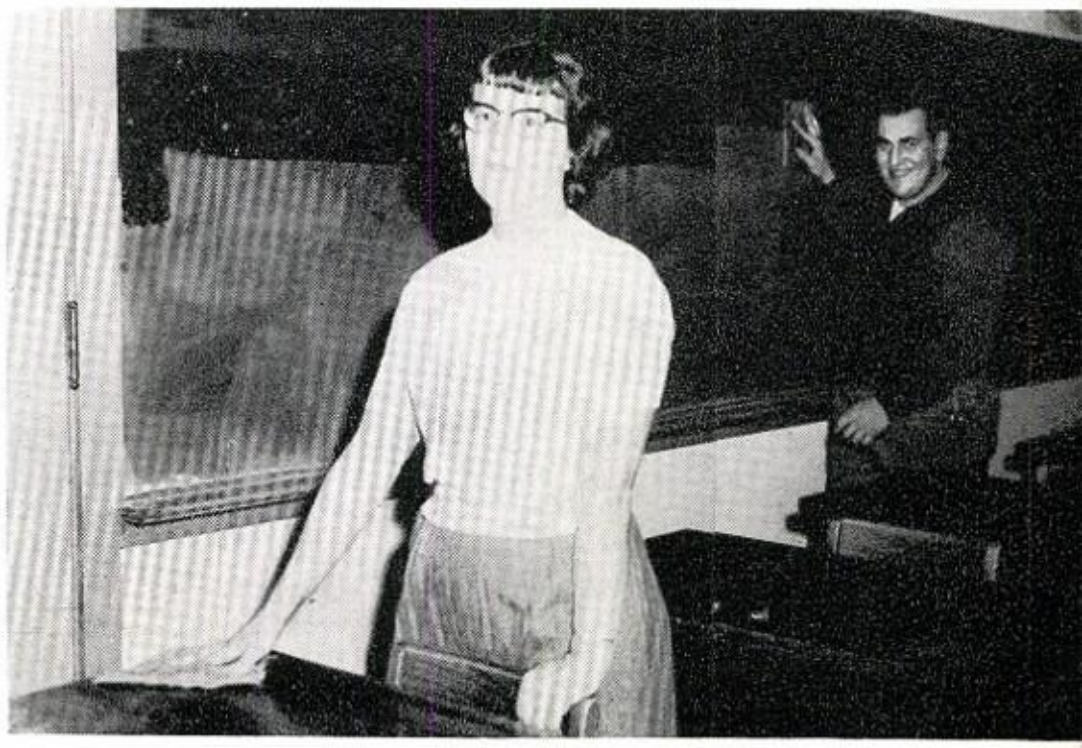
McCaskey Begins Summer-School Program

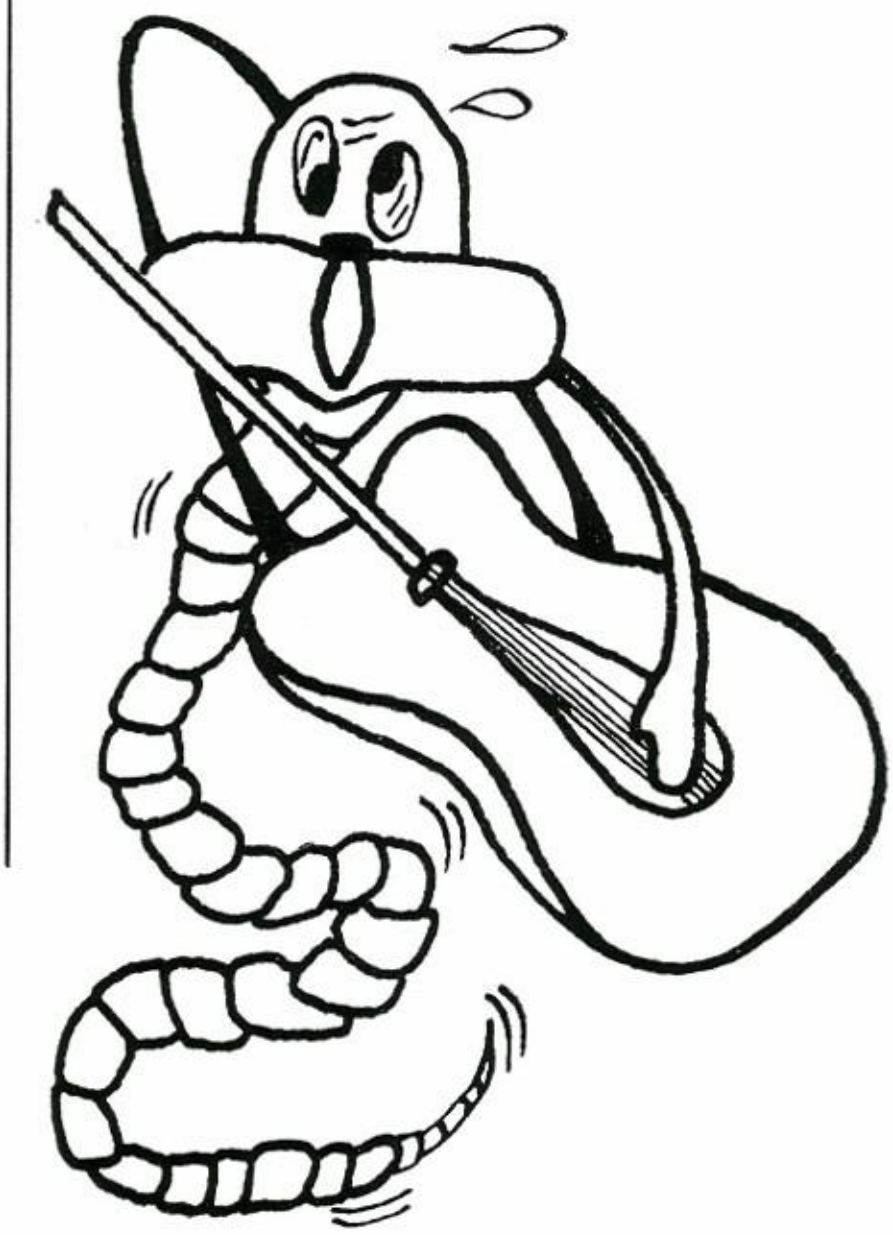
With an enrollment of 463 students, the first state-accredited summer school at McCaskey ran from June 22 to July 31, 1959. Advanced-credit courses carried one credit for four hours of class work per day. Many students taking this work studied some type of mathematics or a foreign language. Commercial work was popular with students interested in enrichment courses. Most of the makeup work was in the English field. The faculty consisted of seventeen certified teachers from the city schools and three student-teachers from Elizabethtown College.



Mrs. Ruth McClune, matron, and Robert Hall, janitor, perform necessary clean-up chores.

Front Row: Mrs. M. C. Stallsmith, clerk, Miss Beverly Styer, Mrs. Estelle Marcuse, Mrs. Elizabeth Geiger, Miss B. Arvilla Miller, Miss Anna L. Shroy, Mrs. Walter Hertz. Second Row: Clarence M. Ebersole, Charles S. Mulhatten, assistant principal, Robert W. Broome, Miss Clayce G. Bump, Miss Sara F. Diller, Ralph H. Patterson, Edward C. Kraft, principal. Third Row: Alden M. Sell, Maurice C. Stallsmith, Donald L. Trostle, Charles R. Miller, Daniel W. McGary, Wilbert Dourte, John Grimm. The summer faculty consisted of twenty-one members.

So Well Remembered



James Brown piles textbooks on Priscilla Loomis, who tries to concentrate on homework, as well as on her activities. Alan Cashman (front) reminisces about dance plans, while Catharine Barley displays a product of her Junior Achievement group. These activities represent many that will be "So Well Remembered" by McCaskeyites.

VIDETTE Records Current Events At McCaskey

At first glance, the VIDETTE seems to be nothing more than the school newspaper which appears every other Friday. But to those "in the know," its publication involves almost as much preparation as a "blast-off" at Cape Canaveral.

As the "countdown" begins, the respective editors assign news, sports, and feature stories to reporters, who, in turn, get the necessary information and write their stories. While this is going on, the editors prepare layouts for each page.

The next few steps include copyreading all material, rewriting some of it, writing headlines and subheads, and finally typing these on separate sheets. The day before publication, the editorial staff reports to the printers to proofread each page at least twice. The printing is completed, and the circulation staff readies the paper for distribution.

Finally the "blast-off" arrives as the VIDETTE reaches the hands of subscribers. This entire procedure is supervised by Robert W. Broome, head of the English department.

"All work and no play" is not the motto of the staff, however. During the year the juniors visit the Lancaster Newspapers; in June the entire staff participates in a banquet with the ECHO members. Five editors attended a press conference, banquet, and dance at Dallastown.

ECHO Staff Writes Brief Novel On School Life

After long, heated meetings in May of 1959, the senior staff members chose the theme, "A School Novel." A new experience for the ECHO was the selection of co-editors in the key position. Another new feature which augmented the book's appeal was a colored picture of the school.

In the fall, after the subscriptions were totaled, a new high of 1190 books was recorded, exceeding last year's by 50.

Now came the time for inspired picture suggestions, measuring, pasting, writing, editing, proofreading, ad infinitum. Padded covers were discarded, and a modern hard cover was designed. Louise Jennings' sketches of bookworms to be used on the divider pages decorated the room of the adviser, Miss Violet B. Weber.

As time seemed to fly by, all the 146 pages were finally proofread. Staff members, weary from last-minute-rush preparations, soon found "Our Hearts Were Young And Gay" again – the 1960 yearbook was added to the chronicles placed in the McCaskey archives.

Students Earn Quill And Scroll Membership

High-school journalists in the upper third of their class are honored for work on school publications by membership in Quill and Scroll. Thirty-three seniors and twenty-five juniors are members of this international society this year at McCaskey.

VIDETTE members are required to contribute 100 inches of printed copy or its equivalent in other newspaper activities. ECHO members gain membership thru art work, writing copy, arranging layouts, proof reading, typing, or record keeping, plus regular assignments.

Students Qualify For Honor Society

Twenty-five seniors served as members of the National Honor Society this year under the sponsorship of John S. Oller, faculty adviser. These students were chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Five per cent of the junior class and fifteen per cent of the senior class are elected to the Honor Society each spring.

The responsibilities of Honor Society members are varied. These students plan one school assembly a month, guide incoming sophomores and assist teachers the first day of school, usher at commencement and baccalaureate services and at community programs held in the school auditorium, usher during Parents' Night, care for the bulletin boards and trophy cases, and tutor students desiring help with school subjects.

The cafeteria is a scheduled stop-off in the tour conducted by Harold Sobel.

Student Council Voices Wishes Of Student Body

The Student Council, consisting of one representative from each homeroom and one from various school activities, gives students an opportunity to voice their opinions. Edward C. Kraft, assistant principal, is supervisor.

Committees that comprise the council are program, safety, suggestion, concession, welfare, handbook, and cafeteria. This year three members went to a conference at Penn Manor High School, and the officers went to a meeting at Cornwall. The council sponsored two faculty teas, wrote a cafeteria code, and took a safety poll. Carol Pew's committee planned a revision of the handbook.

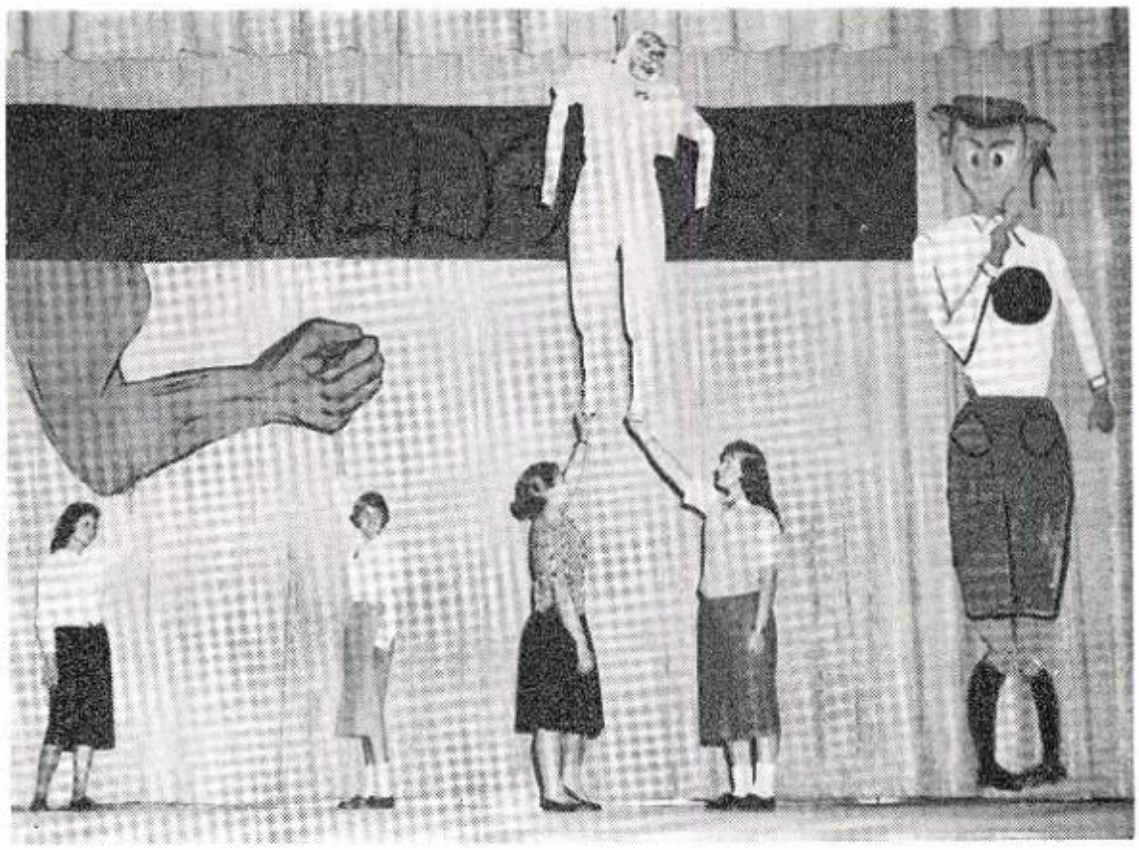
Council Sponsors Assemblies And Activities

"Bring on the cookies," says Mr. William L. Atchley as Barbara McCowan serves tea. Brenda Broome and Toletha Todd help make the "Facul-tea" a success.

The program committee of the Student Council plans one assembly program for each month. Outstanding programs this year included the "Mormonaires," a group of six men who played musical instruments and sang; a film called "Highway Safety Is No Accident," featuring Johnny Parsons, a well-known race driver of the Indianapolis Speedway; and a movie called "Citizenship in Action."



Getting in voice for the Williamsport game, Julia Shenk and Sandra Graeter are ready to "Wallop Willy-Port" as Christl Behn and Carolyn Harrison predict a hangin'.

Left: After the "Sweetheart Swing" dance, Barbara Brubaker, Carol Nissly, and Edward Carr wish that putting up decorations were as easy as tearing them down.

All-School Social Committee Sponsors Five Dances

Under the direction of the senior deans, Mrs. Mary B. Myers and S. Ernest Kilgore, the All-School Social Committee sponsored five dances: "November Nocturne," "Pilgrim Swirl," "Cavern Capade," "Sweetheart Swing," and "Parisian Holiday." The co-chairmanship is shared by Kent Frazier and Barbara McCowan.

The 55 members, working many hours after school, perform varied duties under subchairmen Eloise Aurand, publicity; Bruce Bear, refreshments; George Brubaker, admissions; Pamela Fitzkee, guests; Sandra Graeter, checkroom; Ronald Hinkle, property; Julia Shenk, decorations; and Leslie Zwirn, music.

"The Thirteenth Chair," one of the most popular and successful mystery plays ever produced on Broadway, was presented on the McCaskey stage November 20 and 21 under the direction of Miss Naomi B. Terry.

The story centers around a dinner party given by Roscoe Crosby. Madame La Grange, an eccentric Irish medium, holds a seance. In the course of the meeting, while all the doors and windows to the room are locked, a man is killed. Inspector Donohue is called to solve the case. As the investigation proceeds, suspicion falls on Helen O'Neill, who is engaged to Will Crosby. Thru the efforts of Madame La Grange, guilt is removed from Helen; and the murderer is uncovered.

Mr. Foster Augustine and the Stage Crafters created the scenery. Student directors were Lois Cochran, Ronald Kropf, Elaine Long, Wesley Schnee, and Barbara Spiese.

Starting top right and proceeding left and down: 1. Madame Rosalie La Grange conducts a spiritualistic seance in the Crosby home. 2. Persuaded by Madame La Grange, Mr. Crosby, and Will Crosby, Helen O'Neill reveals why she visited the murdered man's room right before his death. The family butler, Pollock, politely looks on. 3. Mr. Mason and Mrs. Crosby try to arouse Mary Eastwood after she hears the dead man speak at the seance. 4. The policeman tells Sergeant Dunn and Inspector Donohue that the murder weapon is not hidden in the chimney. 5. Inspector Donohue tries to find out Madame La Grange's relationship to Helen O'Neill.

"The Curious Savage," a great comedy hit on Broadway, was presented at McCaskey April 8 and 9 under the direction of Miss Naomi B. Terry, dramatics supervisor.

The story centers around Mrs. Ethel P. Savage, who inherited ten-million dollars at her husband's death. Her three step-children, Lily Belle, Samuel, and Titus scheme desperately to get control of the money. When they find that she transferred her money to negotiable bonds, they decide to send her to "The Cloisters," a private mental institution. Here she meets four people who seem as sane as her own relatives. Trying to find the money, her children visit her many times. Mrs. Savage finally decides that she belongs to the "outside" world.

The set was provided by Mr. Foster Augustine and his club and Mr. J. Irvin Shelly and the wood-shop boys. All the furniture was rebuilt and re-upholstered.

Starting top left and proceeding right and down: 1. Lily Belle and Titus Savage look on with disgust when Mrs. Savage accepts the eccentricities of the other members of "The Cloisters." 2. Hannibal entertains Florence, Jeffrey, and Fairy May with some "beautiful" violin playing. 3. Miss Willie, a nurse at the home, does not take the 50,000-dollar bribe that Mrs. Savage seriously offers her. 4. Lily Belle states that her mother's teddy bear is childish and tries to take it while Titus and Samuel encourage her. 5. Doctor Emmett calmly tries to persuade Mrs. Paddy, a patient who refused to talk for twenty years, to tell where she hid Mrs. Savage's bonds.

Points toward membership in the National Thespian Society can be earned by participation in school dramatic events, by working with the stage and lighting crews, and by rendering service as a student director. Stars are awarded for work beyond admittance requirements.

Each year new members are inducted, and an Honorary Thespian is named. To date the following faculty members, past and present, were honored with memberships: William L. Atchley, Sarah E. Bitner, Gardiner C. Criswell, Dr. B. B. Herr, Edward C. Kraft, B. Arvilla Miller, A. Fred Rentz, John H. Rodman, Dorothy E. Schock, and Naomi B. Terry.

The cast of "A Dime a Dozen," written by John Krill, includes Irvin Sittler, Susan Kraft, Robin Goldsmith, Larry Terrell, Sandra Nagy, and Betsy Griffith.

Student Body Enjoys Student-Written Plays

Each January, members of the dramatics classes present three original skits in an assembly program. Authors of each skit may select their casts, and students direct the performances.

In the Christmas play Dramatics-Club actors Michael Marcuse, Betsy Griffith, Irvin Sittler, Linda Ellenberger, Ronald Kropf, and Brenda Flory look for a mouse. Each year the club presents a program in Concert Hall.

Glee Club Highlights Year With Spring Musicale

The McCaskey Glee Clubs, under the direction of Miss Dorothy E. Schock, presented the Christmas portion of Handel's "Messiah" as their annual Yuletide concert. The groups were accompanied by Roberta Williams, pianist, and Betsy Lorenz and George Sparks, organists. Two of the outstanding features of the program were the "Hallelujah Chorus" and the traditional closing number, "Silent Night." Parts of the "Messiah" were sung at the Christmas assembly also.

In May, the glee clubs, accompanied by the orchestra, displayed their abilities in the presentation of "Carousel" by Rogers and Hammerstein. "Carousel" was chosen from several other selections for its musical and literary content. Patricia Miller, Jere Moser, David Ehemann, and Paul Daehling sang the leading parts. Bonnie Butson and Peggy Foote served as choreographers. The scenery was designed by Foster Augustine, his regular classes, and the Stage Crafters. J. Irvin Shelly and the boys in wood shop constructed the boats and basic props.

Songsters Sing For School And Civic Events

The Choristers, a group consisting of 40 boys and girls selected from Senior Glee Club, meet weekly under the supervision of Miss Dorothy E. Schock. This year, in addition to singing for many public organizations and school assemblies, they made a video tape which was shown on television during the Christmas season.

Among the occasions for which they sang were Parents' Night, the D.A.R. Assembly, and the baccalaureate service. They also performed for the annual Elks' Memorial program, a meeting of the Happy Hours Club at the Brunswick Hotel, and the memorial exercise for Arnold F. Fink, former supervisor of the physical education and health department of Lancaster City schools. Six members of the group presented numbers from "Carousel" at a meeting of the Lancaster Business and Professional Women's Club.

The McCaskey Orchestra, composed of forty-three musicians, participated in several programs during the year. "Christmas Rhapsody" was played in the holiday assembly. In the annual spring concert, "Rhapsody and Rhythms," the string section played seven selections, featuring two compositions, "Fiddle Faddle" by Leroy Anderson and Dittersdorf's "Symphony in F Major." A video tape recording was shown on WGAL-TV prior to the concert. The orchestra also accompanied the glee clubs in the spring musicale "Carousel."

The "Symphonette," a small group of selected musicians, provided music at the school play.

Musical Groups Present "Rhapsody And Rhythms"

The concert band, orchestra, and dance band members presented "Rhapsody and Rhythms" on March 19, 1960. Before the concert, the organizations held a recording session to tape music for a long-playing record, which was purchased by students and faculty members.

Janette Bauer, Barbara Benner, Joan Byers, Henry Huffman, Julia Theobald, and Robert Ward represented McCaskey at the District Band Festival. Representatives Barbara Benner, Henry Huffman, Julia Theobald, and Robert Ward attended the Regional Band Festival. Officers are John Lynes, president; Douglas Smith, vice-president; and Betsy Lorenz, secretary.

In full regalia at dress rehearsal, the concert band members are J. Albright, J. Alexander. D. Alspach, J. Bauer, J. Benedict, B. Benner, R. Bergen, L. Bowman, J. Brendle, H. Bricker, T. Buchanan, V. Bushong, L. Butcher, J. Byers, E. Carr, B. Carver, S. Chernoff, W. Cool, R. Coulter, R. Diehm, M. Donley, J. Ehemann, R. Fasig, R. Feister, C. Frey, P. Geist, J. Gery, J. Gilbo, E. Harple, C. The marching band, led by John Albright, drum major, features Billie Wolf and the color guards, Diana Henry, Linda Porter, Susan Kraft, Martha DeHaven, Joan Ehleiter, Hollis Hullihen, and Donna Ressel.

Marching Band Prepares Drills

The first day of school in September marked the beginning of marching band practices. Every day the 117 band members, under the supervision of Donald L. Trostle and Eugene Polaski, directors, and Kenneth Reeves, student director, paraded down the football field in the crisp air of early morning. Trombone slides, clarinet keys, and fingers froze; but neither rain, sleet, nor snow kept the band from preparing formation drills and precision marching demonstrations for halftime intermissions.

Head majorette Billie Wolf placed first in the State strutting contest. Three years ago she won fifth place in world competition.

Sandra Chernoff, Coralie Hull, Evelyn Harple, and Ronald Rhinier lead the band back to school from a morning rehearsal.

Library Staff Arranges Displays

The student library staff, under the direction of Miss Dorothea Wolfe and Miss Marilyn J. Wright, keeps the library running smoothly. The girls give of their time before and after school and during study periods. Charging books and materials, filing, and supervising the circulation of magazines are a few of their duties. One of the big jobs is the arranging of displays which brighten the library. The position of student secretary was established this year; her duties include clerical work and typing.

To "Open Wonderful New Worlds" and encourage students to "Wake Up And Read," National Library Week was observed with programs in all homerooms.

In the first four tests, high scorers of the senior girls were Christl Behn, shuttle run; Bettie Carver, modified pull-ups; Carol Pew, sit-ups; and Mary Gable, standing broad jump. Right: Andy Stoe won the shuttle run in 9.1 seconds. Robert Salzman was highest in sit-ups at 1001, and also of the pull-ups at 18. In the broad jump, the best senior record was made by John Groff.

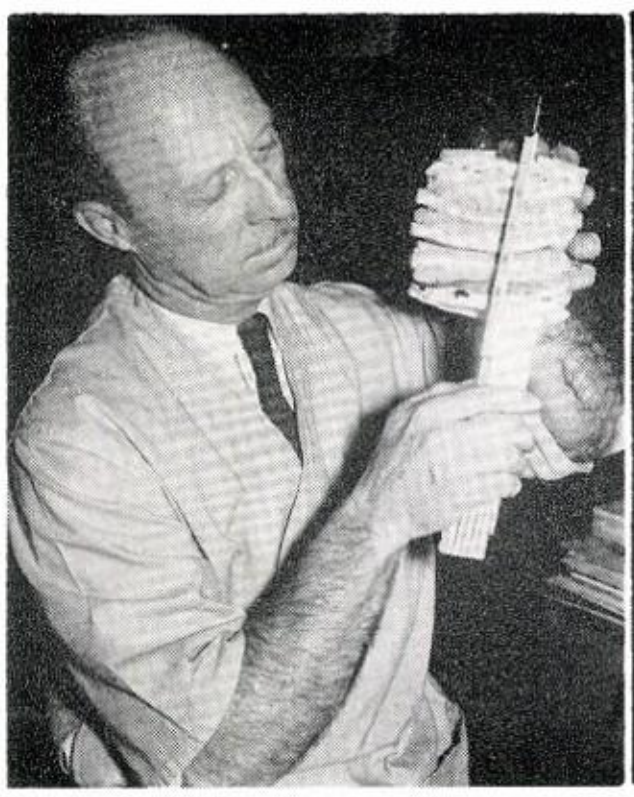
Right: In the electric shop Alan Hertz checks the relay on a direct current automatic motor control panel. James Painter and Frederick White offer advice.

Vocational Training Aids In Developing Academic Work

This year the students in the electric shop have undertaken the building of a foreign language laboratory for use in the school. Consisting of a master panel and ten booths, it permits learners to become fluent in the spoken as well as the written language. Each booth is equipped with a microphone, a head-set, and an amplifier with a selector switch for choosing the desired language. The student selects the assigned lesson channel and then listens to a tape recording of the current lesson. He uses the microphone to imitate aloud exactly what he hears. By listening to his own voice thru the head-set, he is able to compare his pronunciation with that on the recording. This electronic aid allows the teacher more time for personal help.

Left: Mr. Franklin R. Marsh, industrial arts instructor, puts a measuring tool to good use to determine the thickness ten slices of bread will make in a king-sized club sandwich. Right: In the auto shop Nelson Dougherty uses the analyzer for the carburetor; Ronald Hickey checks a spark plug while John Mooney assures the tightness of the fan belt. In the background James Wenger tests the vacuum control. Mr. Warren Kline, auto-shop teacher, owns the car.



Sandra Ulrich, listening attentively to a dictaphone, types a business letter, while Dolores Fitting transcribes from her shorthand notes. Dolores, after completing the 120-word shorthand test in her junior year, passed the 140-word test in February of this year, a feat no McCaskey student has ever accomplished so early in the year. One hundred words per minute is the standard for graduation. By the end of February, eight senior girls had passed the 120-word test.

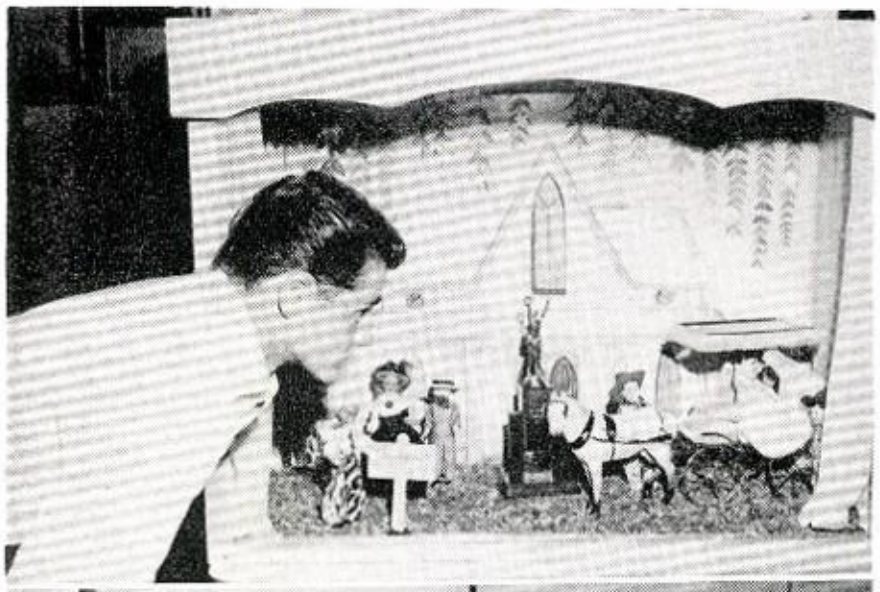
Distributive-Education Students Sponsor Varied Programs



The members of the distributive education course attend school in the morning and work in stores in the afternoon. Trained to be retail salesmen, they operate the school store and arrange displays in the salesroom and main lobby. Three credits are earned for classroom work and two credits for the store laboratory work.

The group sponsored many activities this past year: a "Get-acquainted Party" for teen-agers in similar courses in surrounding cities, a school assembly program and tea, and a St. Patrick's Day sale.

The group attended the meeting of the National Retail Merchants Association in New York and the State Distributive Education Convention in York.

Donald Cully won first place in a debate held to select a representative to the State public-speaking contest. As winner, he visited a Distributive Education program in a Bucks County high school.

Day, a tea was held for the visitors and faculty members. Mildred Schaeffer (seated), Dinah Eisenberger, Mrs. Kathryn A. Clark, instructor, and Dr. Galen Jones, York coordinator, pose for a last-minute snapshot.

Miss Pauline Stauffer takes advantage of a lovely fall day to hold art class out-doors under a copper beech tree. Sketching the scenery are Nancy Ogden, Charles Burns, Suzanne Price, Janet Young, Frederick Bachman, Kathryn Polite, and Wanda Barton. "A Sea of Grass" provides a pleasant place for the artists.

Out-doors And In-doors, Busy Hands Make Happy People

Gridders Romp To Championship And Undefeated Season

McCaskey's first undefeated football team since 1924 overpowered all opponents in the Central Penn Conference to capture the league championship for the fourth time since its beginning in 1947. Rated "a team of doubtful promise" by Coach Boyd Sponaugle at the start of the season, the Tornado surprised everyone by romping for nine straight victories, piling up 210 points against 26 for the opponents. Only three lettermen — co-captains George Bechtold, Paul Fedor, and Frank Hershey—returned from the 1958 season.

The Red and Black clinched the Central Penn title with a spectacular 20-0 win over the highly-rated John Harris with halfback Sandy Hill scoring all three touchdowns. Even more spectacular was the Tornado's 26-0 final win over York for an undefeated season. Highlights of the game were halfback Ken Stoudt's runs of 75 and 84 yards, both for touchdowns.

Post-season recognition for McCaskey players was notable. Ken Stoudt placed second in Central Penn scoring with nine touchdowns and 54 points. Center George Bechtold, guard Paul Fedor, quarterback Frank Hershey, tackle Frank Metzger, and halfback Ken Stoudt were selected for the Conference All-Star squad.

Jayvee Football Team Extends Its Winning Streak

The McCaskey Junior Varsity football team, coached by Daniel W. McGary and Edward L. Haller, extended its winning streak to seventeen games before losing to John Harris by one point.

The squad, consisting solely of sophomores, trounced its first three opponents. In their fourth game with Steelton, the Tornado came from behind twice to register a 13-13 tie. The gridders ended the season with a 27-7 win over York, thus completing a 5-1-1 record.

Perky Pepsters Cheer Teams To Victory

Thru more victories than defeats, the cheerleaders and their mascots, "Lanky" and Winnie Sue Leptich, injected spirit into players and fans. For the first time, the squad was augmented by six extra girls who assisted with special duties and cheering. Many posters appeared in the lobby and halls before each football and basketball game. New cheers were introduced at pep assemblies. In an outstanding skit, the girls portrayed cheerleaders from different countries.

Soccermen Boast Victorious Season

The McCaskey soccer team, with nine returning varsity players, completed its second consecutive winning season with a 11-2-1 record. After dropping their second game to Garden Spot by one goal, the booters remained undefeated until the finals in the District 3 playoffs. McCaskey edged out Brandywine and Northeastern, but lost a heart-breaker to Pequea Valley by a 2-3 overtime score. Four players were named to the first-string City-County All-Stars.

The junior varsity finished an undefeated season by winning over Kennett Square 1-0. Scoring five shut-outs, the booters tallied thirty-one goals to their opponents' nine.

Horns Lead Harriers To Winning Year

The McCaskey cross-country team finished the season with an 8 and 4 record which placed them third in the District 3 Cross-Country League. The team lost twice to John Harris and twice to York.

Composed mostly of underclassmen, the squad was paced by two brothers—Henry Horn, a senior, and John, a sophomore. Henry broke records on six different courses and lowered the record for McCaskey's course five times. In the State championships, Henry finished second; John came in 18th in a field of 228 runners. Henry's finish was the best ever of a McCaskey runner and the second best in the history of the state.

Jayvee Dribblers Complete Tough League Schedule

Walter Kreider, in his second year as junior varsity basketball coach, led the Tornado squad to 11 wins and 10 losses. With the exception of two juniors, the team was composed of sophomores. They compiled 999 points during the season for an average of 47.57 points per game. McCaskey opponents scored 1,006 points for a 47.9 average per game. The Red and Black dribblers started off the season by winning three of four games, and then lost five straight. However, they finished strong by winning their last four contests. The most exciting victory was a 61-60 overtime triumph over Central Dauphin on the home floor.

High scorer for the jayvee cagers was Michael Uhrich with 208 points for a 9.9 average per game. Close behind was Ray Meyers with 184 points, or a 9.7 average. Harold Phillips accounted for 138 points, Martin Sponaugle tallied 136, and Lloyd Snyder scored 106.

York Victory Highlights Cagers' Winning Season

Under the leadership of Charles R. Miller, McCaskey's varsity basketball team had its first winning season in 13 years, with a record of 11 wins and 10 losses. In pre-league competition the cagers recorded two wins and three losses; in league play they won nine and lost seven, giving them a tie for third place.

The highlight of the season was the one-point victory over the league-leading York Bearcats. Altho York was in the lead by 10 points at the half, the Tornado hoopsters, inspired by Vince Keagy's sharp shooting, rallied to score 43 points in the last half and handed York its only defeat in Ce tral Penn play. After downing York, the cagers went on a 7-game winning streak before being stopped by Reading.

In over-all scoring, Keagy led the team with a 13.7 average; Butch Young was second with 9.1; and Frank Hershey had 8.8. Keagy was the only player to make the Central Penn All-Stars.

Tornado Wrestlers Better Last Year's Record

Reversing the record of last year's grapplers, the McCaskey matmen battled to a seven-win and six-loss season total. For the first year under the direction of Coach William C. Piper, the Tornado placed fifth in the Lancaster County League and had two men, Joe Emmi and Paul Martin, advance to the final round of the District Sectionals. Paul, undefeated in league competition, continued on to the District 3 Championships before losing in his 127-pound division. Altho the grunt-and-groaners lost some heartbreaking matches, they stomped enough opponents to post a winning season.

Setting up good prospects for next year, the strong jayvee team dropped only three matches while piling up six victories and one tie.

The sixteenth swimming team coached by Abe Herr completed the 1959-60 season with a 12 and 1 record. A skilled diver, Rick Gilbert, again was undefeated in his event, placed first in the District 3 meet, the Regional, and the State Championships. He raised his own record to a towering 115.93 points. McCaskey finished second to York in the District 3 meet, third in the Eastern Regional PIAA, and fifth in the State PIAA Championships. In the Regionals, Pete Swift came in fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke. The 200-yard medley relay team made up of Joe Friend, Pete Swift, Joe Mummaw, and Stanley Watt placed second and broke the school and the district records. In the State meet, they placed third.

Twelve Tornado Lettermen Return To Pace Squad

The Tornado cindermen, coached by Boyd L. Sponaugle and E. Jerry Brooks, began practice in March in an effort to extend their winning streak to 39 and post a fourth District 3 title.

The team is paced by 12 letter-winners from last year's undefeated squad. Two of these were District champs, Co-captain Joe Friend in the high hurdles and Dave Miller in the javelin. Friend later finished second in the State Championships. Also returning will be District runner-up and Co-captain Paul Fedor, who finished second in both the shot put and the discus; and Henry Horn, who broke the school record for the mile while running indoors.

April 12 the team extended its winning streak to 27 games by defeating Central Dauphin 91-36. The team was led by winners Henry Horn and Paul Fedor. In its next outing, the Tornado felled Cedar Cliff by 108 to 18. McCaskey finished second to Williamsport in the Shippensburg Invitational meet on April 16. Horn and Fedor captured first places.

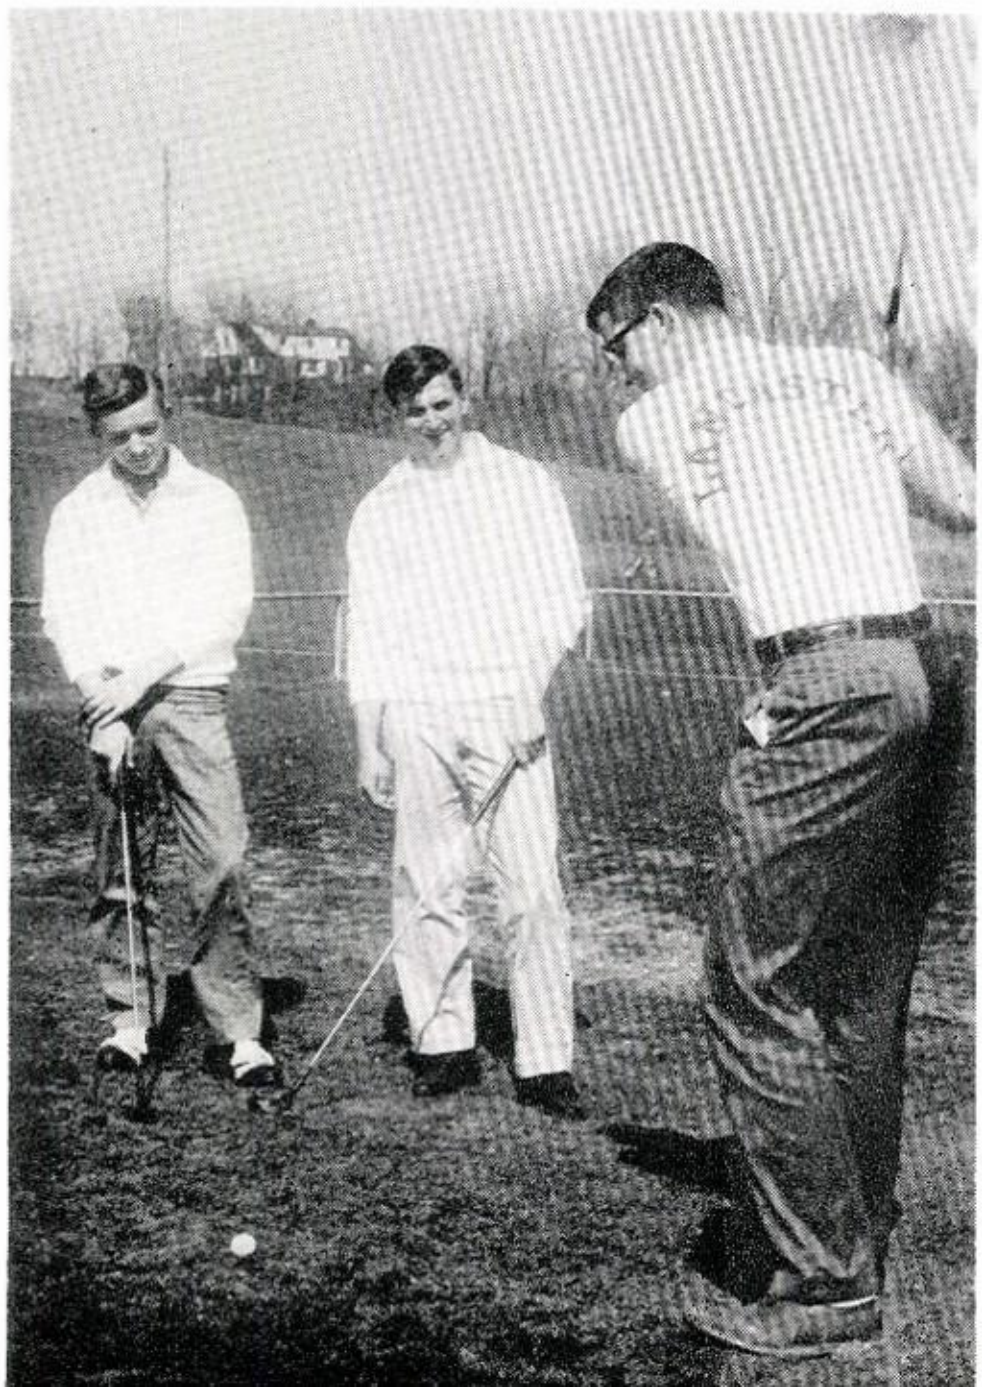
McCaskey Linksmen Strive For Central Penn Title

Dave McLain and Roy Thompson watch George Brubaker demonstrate a drive on the home links.



The Tornado golf team, with three returning lettermen, George Brubaker, Dave McLain, and Ron Proler, expects to improve greatly this year. Senior Roy Thompson and sophomores Bruce Frace and Lloyd Snyder fill out the rest of the squad. Coach Joseph M. Fellows' linksmen were hampered by snow that cut short pre-season practice and matches.

April 4 McCaskey opened the season by defeating Cocalico 15-0 on the home course. The Red and Black golfers tied Hershey, the defending District 3 champions, and followed with victories over Wilson, Manheim Township, Lebanon, and West York.

April 18 the golfers out-played the previously undefeated Reading squad by a 11-4 score. George Brubaker and Bruce Frace shared most of the medalist honors for the first half of the season.

Stickmen Start Season With All Positions Wide Open

With only three returning lettermen, the McCaskey baseball team is preparing for the 1960 season. Shortstop Vincent Keagy, captain, and pitchers George Bechtold and Ronald Good are the three returning lettermen. Walter Kreider, who succeeded Harry E. Langford as varsity baseball coach, believes that McCaskey could be a possible contender for the Central Penn title.

After leading Manheim Township 5-2, the Tornado was rained out in its first contest. Three McCaskey moundsmen shared the pitching as the Tornado club registered a three-hit, 6-0 shutout over Coatesville. Lancaster launched its league campaign with George Bechtold hurling a 10-1 victory over Hershey. The team whipped Lebanon 7-5; then lost its first game 3-7 to John Harris. Bechtold pitched a perfect 1-0 no-hit shutout against William Penn, with Frank Geiger hitting a homerun. This is the first perfect game hurled in Central Penn annals.

In addition to starting the first interscholastic tennis in Pennsylvania, outside of Philadelphia, "Mr. Tennis" is a founder of the Lancaster Tennis Club, and the originator of the golf and soccer teams in the high school.

Racqueteers Hope To Boost Win Streak To 86

Defending a seven-year, 72-game winning streak, the Tornado tennis team is faced with a threatening, fourteen-match schedule. In his 41st and final year of coaching, William L. Atchley is hoping for 86 straight victories before he retires.

Led by returning varsity lettermen John Plakans and Bruce Bear, captain and District 3 Indoor Singles Champion, the team has a good chance of maintaining its eighth undefeated season. Filling out the rest of the varsity are jayvee lettermen Ray Coulter, Doug Hogarth, Bill Difley, Bob Garvey, and Herb Karlip.

April 4 McCaskey opened the season by defeating Radnor 5-0 before rain cancelled the doubles, and April 5, the team repeated the shutout by a 7-0 victory over Hanover. The netmen followed by blanking Central Dauphin 7-0 on April 7. McCaskey is scheduled to meet Wilson in a non-league contest. Under the new schedule, York, William Penn, Hershey, John Harris, Hanover, and Central Dauphin will each be played twice.

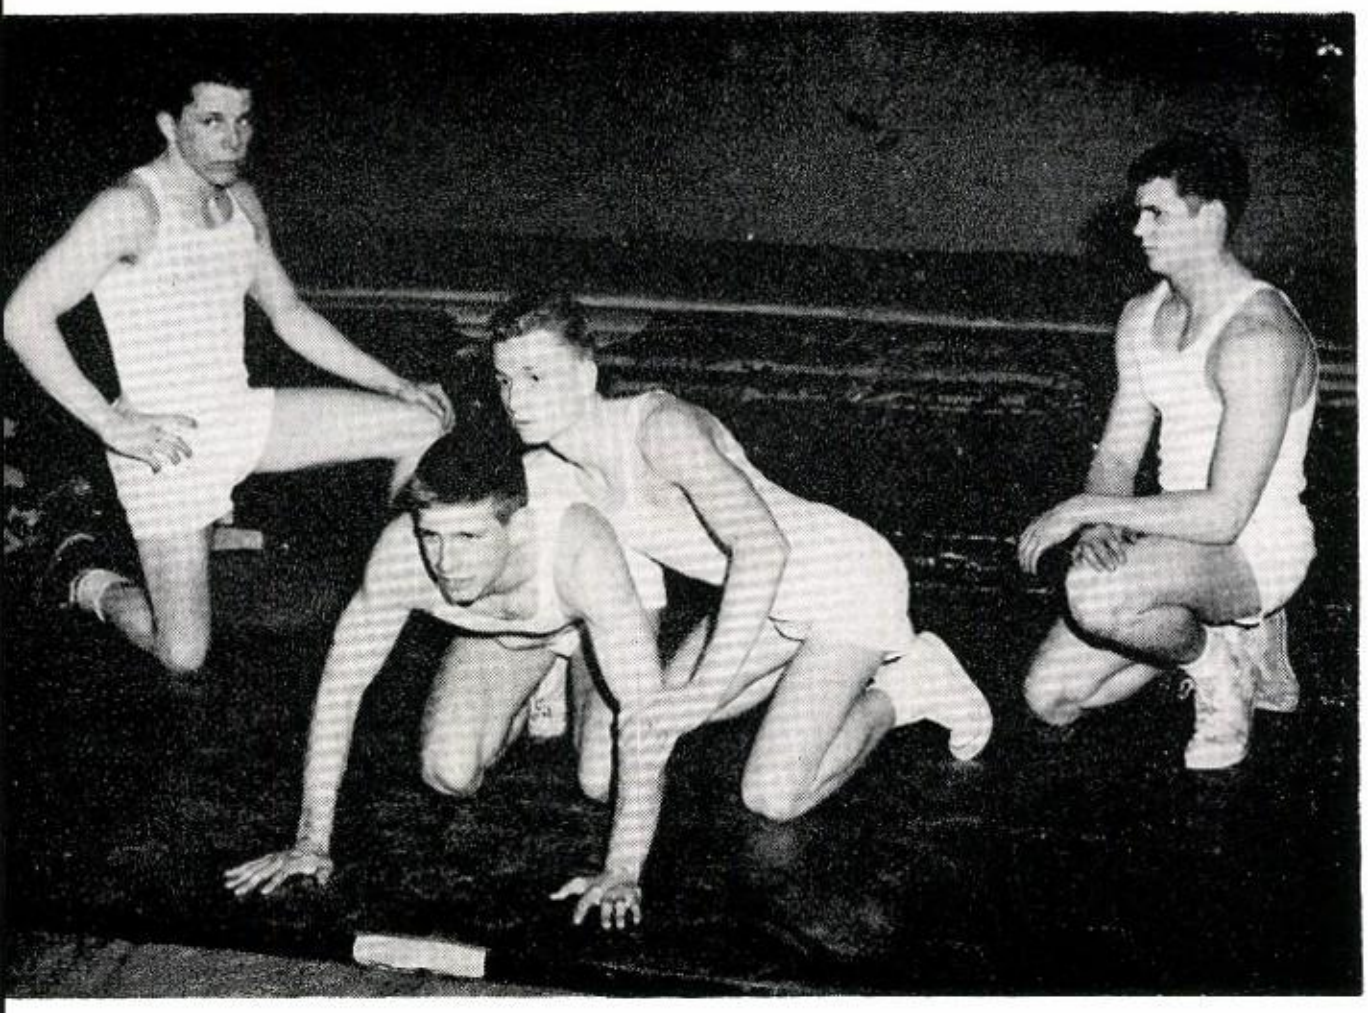
Intramural Tennis Gains Popularity

Thirty-five boys and twenty-six girls were attracted to the three fall tennis tournaments under the direction of William L. Atchley, tennis coach. The competition included singles, doubles, and mixed-doubles matches.

By defeating John Plakans, Bruce Bear became the fifth McCaskey player to win the PIAA District 3 Indoor Tennis tournament since its origin seven years ago.

After playing teams from four county schools, the McCaskey Girls' All-Star Tennis Team boasted an undefeated season in the spring of 1959. The All-Stars are coached by the girls' physical-education teachers.

Left: John Plakans, winner of the boys' singles tournament, teamed with Bruce Bear to gain the doubles crown. Bruce joined Carol Nissly to attain the mixed-doubles championship. Right: Barbara Brubaker, winner of the girls' singles, coupled with Kate Donnelly to win the girls' doubles.



Under the direction of Rupert A. Williams, intramural wrestling was introduced for the first time at McCaskey. Thirty senior boys participated in a successful four-night program. Next year the mats will be open to all classes.

This year's winners are Philip Nissley; Thomas Means and Dennis Hughes, who are demonstrating the referee's position; and David Eckenrode.

Leaders Club Officiates Intramural Sports

Outstanding in athletic ability and leadership—these 56 girls were chosen to assist the teachers, Miss Jone Bush and Mrs. Alice Ueberroth, in achieving a more efficient physical-education program. At the end of September, officers and managers for seasonal sports are elected in club period. The manager chooses officials, schedules games, and records points on the individual score cards that enable participants to be eligible for an athletic award at the end of the year. During class, the leaders take care of equipment, lead exercises, referee games, and demonstrate skills. Leaders officiated at a play day held in May for incoming sophomores.

For Whom The Bell Tolls

As Mr. H. Grant Hurst prepares to hand William Huss a detention slip for coming to class after the tardy bell, he seems to quote the words of John Donne: "And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls. It tolls for thee." Dorothy Ryan (right) sits patiently waiting for class to start.

In Memoriam

On Commencement Day, 1960, the "bell tolls" not only for the graduating seniors, but also in the memory of a classmate, Harold Keyes. His death on May 28, 1959, two days after he was seriously injured in an automobile accident, came as a shock to everyone.

Harold was active in junior varsity football and baseball in his sophomore year. As homeroom president in his junior year, he proved his ability as a leader. Well-liked by everyone, he will be remembered for his friendliness, willingness to give assistance, and neat appearance.

We do not see;
  It was not meant for you and me
To look beyond the near, dim West,
Dividing the present from the rest—
  From the to-come.

Just one by one
The steps we take;
Just one by one the glories wake,
  Or tempest beat. We go
Nearer and nearer to the setting sun, and know
But this, Whatever is, is best.

From "Trust"

Gaily posing on their way to a class meeting are senior officers—Joseph Friend, president; Peter Swift, treasurer; Carolyn McCulley, vice-president; Pamela Fitzkee, historian; Julia Shenk, secretary.

THERE'S NO QUESTION about the future of today's graduates who are willing to contribute toward progress under America's free enterprise system. For each of them, armed with ideas and ideals, there is an opportunity for leadership in business, industry and agriculture. New Holland congratulates the class of 1960, which will help provide that leadership.
